

Who Owns You?

Psalm 24

Introduction: The King of glory has conquered every enemy, but the throne He longs for is the one within your heart. Psalm 24 is not just about gates and cities; it is about surrender. The victorious King is not demanding entry. He is inviting it. Will you lift the gates and let Him reign?

1. Our Creator King Who Owns Everything (vv. 1–2)
2. Our Righteous King Who Demands Holiness (vv. 3–4)
3. Our Faithful King Who Rewards Seekers (vv. 5–6)
4. Our Glorious King Who Reigns in Victory (vv. 7–8)
5. Our Eternal King Who is Returning in Glory (vv. 9–10)

Discussion Questions:

1. Since God owns everything, what areas are you still trying to control?
2. Are your hands clean and your heart pure, or are you approaching God while clinging to hidden sin or divided loyalties? Share one thing you really struggle with!
3. Do you live like Jesus has already won, or are you still fighting battles He has already conquered?
4. If Jesus returned today, would the gates of your heart swing open in joy—or would fear, distraction, or doubt bolt them?
5. Do you worship Him for who He is or only when He blesses you?
6. What do you consider the greatest blessing you have received from the King of glory?
7. Who is this King of glory to you, not just in theory, but in your daily choices? Explain!